Richard Le Gallienne : Travels in England, before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Travels in England,:

This scarce antiquarian book is a facsimile reprint of the original. Due to its age, it may contain imperfections such as marks, notations, marginalia and flawed pages. Because we believe this work is culturally important, we have made it available as part of our commitment for protecting, preserving, and promoting the world's literature in affordable, high quality, modern editions that are true to the original work.

About the AuthorRichard Le Gallienne (1867-1947) was one of Britain's leading literary critics. His abridgment of "The Diary of Samuel Pepys is considered a triumph of editing. Robert Louis Stevenson (1850-1894) is one of the most widely read and admired novelists of the nineteenth century.
