Syracuse, Malta, Gibraltar (Classic Reprint) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Trip to the Sunny South in March, 1885: Paris, Macon, Geneva, Mentone, San Remo, Monte Carlo, Monaco, Italy, Genoa, Turin, Leghorn, Pisa, Naples, ... Syracuse, Malta, Gibraltar (Classic Reprint):

Excerpt from Trip to the Sunny South in March, 1885: Paris, Macon, Geneva, Mentone, San Remo, Monte Carlo, Monaco, Italy, Genoa, Turin, Leghorn, Pisa, Naples, Rome, Reggio, Sicily, Messina, Catania, Syracuse, Malta, Gibraltar The idea of writing a short narrative of a trip to the Mediterranean suggested itself by the numerous enquiries as to "where did you go?" "what did you see that afforded most interest?" It is difficult to compress into half-an-hour, with any degree of clearness, what can be seen in six weeks, and covering 5,000 miles. I beg my friends to accept this broken and disjointed attempt at description. I have tried to say a little about most that I visited, whether they treated me well or badly.
