By Greg
Other than the beautiful color picture on the front of the map, its not worth the paper its printed on. The map unfolds into a view of a million to one ratio of Ukraine. There is no "key" or guides for what you are looking at. No street guides, nothing. Just a gigantic map of an entire country, crunched down into a nearly unreadable format. It would be impossible to navigate this country with this map. I know, I just came back from my trip. I tried to give the map as a gift to the people i was visiting, and no one wanted it. I ended up throwing this map in the trash. I couldn't even use it for fireplace starter material. Don't waste your money on this cute picture.

The map is huge and detailed. Only problem I had with it was that the map gets cut in half for exactly where I needed it so you have to keep flipping the map over from front to back
