Victoria Fernandes : Unique Experiences in Lisbon, 1st Edition before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Unique Experiences in Lisbon, 1st Edition:

Victória World Travel (VWT) guides present a new vision in travel guides and emerge out of the desire to reach out to demanding individuals who seek not only cool style but also to discover the heart soul of cities. The first edition in the VWT collection is dedicated to the city of Lisbon setting out to win over its visitors through insights into the most fascinating and unique aspects this city has to offer. Bringing an exclusive approach to the unique facets of cities, these guides pick out the most authentic and memorable features, everything which is expressive and vibrant - those unique experiences - which can only ever be opened up through involvement with local cultures. From sophisticated and relaxed ambiences, cultural and historical landmarks through to the cosmopolitan and daily livelihoods and social maturity of the prevailing customs, a VWT guide conveys everything that is most positive and cherished about a city. The passport type format (10x14cm) is one core facet to the brand and targeting the growing niche demand for lighter guides, easy to handle, ergonomic, resistant and above all, appealing and able to convey well-being and inspire visitors. The VWT Guide is not so much about new and more refined editorial content but rather presents a creative and innovative concept. In addition to the cover, 96 pages, filled with quality but small-scale images, the VWT guide displays a sophisticated layout while simultaneously achieving ingenious simplicity. These guides are, quite simply, a passport to everything most positive awaiting you in the cities and dwelling on what really does carry value: unique experiences. Henceforth, a new guide dedicated to a city or destination will be published every six months. January 2011 is the planned date for the launch of the VWT guide to Rio de Janeiro, followed by the city of Sofia (Bulgaria) in June of the same year. "Travel Better Wisely" is the promise made by everybody at VWT.
