We just used a number of Pocket Pilot Maps on a recent trip; Munich, Vienna, Prague, and Berlin. We carried them everywhere and they were very helpful. They aren't enough to use on their own when planning a trip, and their list of "must sees" didn't agree entirely with ours or other travel books, but I still highly recommend having this map with you for every city you go. We wish we had had them for every city we went, but they don't all exist. The easy-to-fold-in-different-directions flexibility was great, as was the fact that it was laminated (we did have some rain and snow, and would even look at the maps over meals or drinks). Overall, I say these are a must buy, but don't rely on them on their own. We enjoyed using the Rick Steve's books to help with our planning, and then found the Knopf MapGuides a perfect match with our pocket-pilots. Both are fairly small and both are helpful in different ways. Don't forget to check out your local libraries for the Rick Steve's and Knopf guides, but you'll definitely want to buy your own personal copy of the pocket-pilots. Happy travels!

Truly pocket-sized and extremely helpful. Easy to read, so small yet has lots of information. A must-have, especially for first time visitors.

Double sided, laminated pocket map that folds to only 4 x 4 inches. The main map covers central Vienna and includes insets with the historical center, Schonbrunn Castle, public transit system, environs of Vienna and a map for daytrips.

Included is a text guide and street name index.

We found these really cool maps that fold down to 3x3... for Rome, Venice, and Florence. They are called Pocket-Pilot maps (pocket-pilot.info). They are jammed with informative street maps, sites, transportation, etc. yet they are so small they are not cumbersome at all to carry around. And they are laminated. --tripadvisor.com/ShowTopic-g187895-i68-k567275-Best_map_of_Florence-Florence_Tuscany.html Posted on 12:40 pm, April 15, 2006 by LoveToTravel!
