Etain O'Carroll : Village Walks: Ireland: 50 Adventures on Foot before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Village Walks: Ireland: 50 Adventures on Foot:

9 of 9 people found the following review helpful. Very handy, very useful By Grifell I got these today in preparation for leading a group to Ireland soon. I've spent quite a lot of time there, so I recognize most of the places shown on these cards, and know the history of many of them. The maps are very clear and the information about the notated places seems to be accurate, if not terribly detailed. The walks are short, not hours trekking overland, but quick tours of the cities and principal towns of Ireland. These will be fun for anyone taking a self-directed tour around Ireland. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. will help with the travel route By Lucille Seamangood size if you want to take along on the trip with you, to refresh the memory and the points of interest
