They were also touring Europe as well. My mother had always wanted to visit the Lakes District, and we have all loved Beatrix Potter's books (who doesn't)! But the walks in this book gave my parents the highlight of their entire trip. Without it they would never have known of the walks. They didn't get to do all of them, but loved the ones they did. My mother still raves on about this book and the walks and it's nearly 5 years since their trip. The book is very dog-eared now from being well-used, but it provided many happy memories for them, and photographs for us to enjoy as well. I highly recommend this book. It is a treasure!

The text of the book reads like a guidebook. Of course, that is what this book IS. I don't LOVE the book, as five stars would indicate, but the book IS everything that it is supposed to be. My taste in what the book IS has little to do with the quality of the writing or the book itself.

By love2hike Boyfriend and I went to the Lake Country last May and took this book along as we enjoyed Beatrix Potter's country. A great reference for a superb area. Recommend heartily, both the book and the Lake Country walks!

For many visitors, Beatrix Potter is the most interesting of the Lake District writers. The fact that so many of her stories have clear Lake District locations provides the basis for this book of short easy walks. Follow the adventures of Jeremy Fisher, Squirrel Nutkin, Mrs Tiggy Winkle, Peter Rabbit and many others, actually walking in their footsteps and visiting their lakes and rivers, their houses and gardens. The 15 walks included in this book are all suitable for young and not-so-young walkers. All have direct connections either to Beatrix Potter stories or to her life as a farmer and conservationist. There are maps, illustrations and clear directions plus parking and refreshment suggestions.

It includes atmospheric photographs from the Beatrix Potter Archive ... This is a fascinating book, beautifully illustrated with sketches and photographs ... totally absorbing from cover to cover, for any lover of the Lake District, it is well worth buying
