Editors of Wallpaper Magazine : Wallpaper City Guide: Toronto (Wallpaper City Guides) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Wallpaper City Guide: Toronto (Wallpaper City Guides):

1 of 4 people found the following review helpful. Almost Useless By Ushiwakameru This guide is almost useless. It provides VERY little information. It covers only 9 hotels, just 15 "cafes, restaurants, bars, and nightclubs," and so forth. There's virtually no mention of price ranges for any of these places but from the photos and descriptions everything looks very pricey. The one map of the city is just 8"x6.25." There are also maps (1.75"x2.75") of 4 small neighborhoods. Hotels and eateries mentioned in the book aren't on the maps so good luck finding them if you're interested. This might be a fun resource for Toronto residents with money to burn but for most travelers it is disappointing and worthless.

Wallpaper* City Guides are a ruthlessly-researched, design-conscious guide, for the discerning traveller who wants to come away with a true taste of the best a city has to offer.

'The answer to every short-breaker's dream. The jewel-coloured guides look beautiful and are exquisitely designed.' The Times 'Gorgeous photography, sharp graphics, and design-savvy, waffle-free text, written by city insiders rather than bearded backpackers.' The Independent 'Glamorous, global and affordable.' Telegraph magazine 'Packed with insider knowledge and eye-catching photography.' Vogue 'Ultra-glam, uber-chic' The Observer 'Attractive and well-researched.' USA Today 'Ultra-stylish.' Time Magazine 'Sophisticated but simple.' The New York Times 'Small, stylish and beautifully illustrated, the Wallpaper* City Guides make everything else look old hat. ... The photographs and maps are superb.' The Sydney Magazine About the Author Wallpaper* City Guides are compiled by the magazine's travel experts, both by in-house editors, and correspondents who actually live in the highlighted cities, providing up-to-the-minute information.
