purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised What We Saw of Europe, 1913: We Visit Friends in Denmark, Enjoying Their Hospitality, Travel 3000 Miles Through Europe in Automobile, Sailing from Boulogne September 7 (Classic Reprint):

Excerpt from What We Saw of Europe, 1913: We Visit Friends in Denmark, Enjoying Their Hospitality, Travel 3000 Miles Through Europe in Automobile, Sailing From Boulogne September 7 Well, we set sail for Europe on the fourth of July, having booked on S. S. Bremen a week or so in advance, and as all the steamers were sailing with full lists, we were glad to get pretty fair accommodations on a comfortable, though pretty slow boat. At the time of booking we also secured return passage on S. S. Fredrick der Grosse, Where we got third and fourth officer's rooms, which we now occupy.
