Peter Naldrett, Rev Kate Bottley : Yorkshire Dales Church Walks before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Yorkshire Dales Church Walks:

Church Walks in the Yorkshire Dales combines a love for great walks in the countryside with the often fascinating history of the village church. Twenty walks are in this book - each starting off from an idyllic Yorkshire Dales church and having an inspiring Thought for the Walk written by Gogglebox vicar Rev. Kate Bottley. The walks are planned by outdoor writer Peter Naldrett and include stunning scenery and outstanding natural features in classic Limestone

Country.

About the Author Peter Naldrett is a freelance writer specialising in travel and the outdoors. He's the author of several guides to the Peak District and Lake District as well as the Yorkshire Dales. A Yorkshireman, he has also written for Dalesman and The Countryman. Rev.
